Work and community involvement Principles, values and approaches to community involvement in work While the board of the AUA is primarily concerned with the quality of practice, there is substantial overlap between what is of interest to the board and the broader community of Aotearoa New Zealand. It is the board's responsibility to ensure that the association is achieving its strategic priorities for the benefit of the profession, and the wider community, through engagement with the community. With respect to community involvement, the board has: identified a process to guide development of a strategic framework; envisaged policy development in three areas and a strategy for the role of the AUA
